

The Craigsville-Augusta Springs Rescue Squad will host a Hepatitis B vaccination session on November 10, 2004 at 6:00 PM at the rescue squad station. Craigsville has opened this session to any volunteer provider that would like to start the HBV series. Those interested should call 540-997-5330 no later than October 27, 2004 to register.

Drug Task Force Seminar/Forum - The Broadway Emergency Squad will host the RUSH Drug Task Force and a presentation and open forum by Doug Hardesty on drug-related situations faced by EMS personnel. ALS and BLS CE credit will be awarded.

More information at

<http://www.csems.vaems.org/courses/>

CSEMS AHA Heartcode BLS Interactive Learning System

The Heartcode System presents all of the lessons from the American Heart Association "BLS for Healthcare Providers" and "Heartsaver AED" textbooks, plus interactive teaching scenarios and all required evaluations. The AHA Community Training Center will begin offering recertification sessions using this new learning system in the near future.

More information at

<http://www.csems.vaems.org/aha/index.html>

Need Continuing Education Hours?

Do you need some continuing education hours? If you do, check out our CE Classes page. Listed on the page are all classes the Council is conducting that offer CE. In addition to the Council classes are classes that area instructors have announced to us. From October to December, there are over 100 ALS CE hours and over 130 BLS CE hours available.

CE Classes page... <http://www.csems.vaems.org/ceclasses/>

Central Shenandoah EMS Council

2312 W. Beverley St.

Staunton, VA 24401

<http://www.csems.vaems.org>