The Central Shenandoah EMS Council Board of Directors and David Cullen, Executive Director of the Council, are pleased to announce that Matt Lawler has been promoted to Assistant Director effective July 1, 2006. Matt has been employed with the council since March 2001 and is currently the Training Director. He is responsible for developing and directing all training programs offered by CSEMS throughout the region. He also serves as the Program Director for the Accredited Intermediate Training Program.

As the Assistant Director, Matt will continue to direct and supervise the training programs and training staff while assisting the Executive Director in the planning, development and execution of all regional Council services. His main job focus will remain with training and maintaining the high standard of care associated with CSEMS providers.

Matt's dedication to the EMS region, outstanding instructional skills and highly professional approach is a testament to his abilities to perform at a high standard in his new position.
