Classes & Descriptions

8:00 AM - 10:00 AM

From Mud, Blood and Beer to the Level 1 Trauma Center - Aggressive Shock Management

ALS CAT 1 (Area 83—Shock 1.0 CEUs; Area 90—Painful Swollen Extremity 1.0 CEUs) BLS CAT 1 (Area 04—Trauma Emergencies 2.0 CEUs)

This session discusses the etiology of shock, aggressive management and the current trends in what's hot and what's not. It includes case reviews from interesting calls and provides an overview of the Level 1 Trauma Centers perspective on these patients. Students will follow the patients from hospital admission via ED to discharge and rehabilitation. Instructor: Travis Karicofe

10:30 AM - 12:30 PM

Hand You What? The Yellow Thing? – Cooperative Airway Management

ALS CAT 1 (Area 71—Ventilatory Support 2.0 CEUs) BLS CAT 1 (Area 03—Airway Management 2.0 CEUs)

BLS and ALS providers often work hand-in-hand when managing a patient's airway. After a review of the anatomy of the airway, this presentation will focus ways BLS providers and ALS providers can work together while managing an advanced airway. A variety of advanced airway devices will be reviewed. Providers will practice airway management techniques together on manikins. Instructor: Amanda McComas

Classes & Descriptions

1:30 PM - 3:30 PM

The Tip of an Iceberg - EMS Action Guide to Heat & Cold Emergencies

ALS CAT 1 (Area 89—Heat and Cold Emergencies 2.0 CEUs) BLS CAT 1 (Area 05—Medical Emergencies 2.0 CEUs)

This lecture will review the basics of heat and cold emergencies. We will discuss a basic fundamental approach to treating these patients, and what key points to look out for during treatment. Instructor: Wes Shifflett

4:00 PM - 6:00 PM

Dynamite Comes in Small Packages

ALS CAT 1 (Area 91—Neonatology 2.0 CEUs) BLS CAT 1 (Area 08—Infants and Children 2.0 CEUs)

This session will review neonate management, discuss common birth defects and delivery complications. It will include a review of changes to the Neonatal Resuscitation Program used in hospitals nationwide and a case study of neonatal care. Instructor: Travis Karicofe
